†THE PREPARATION†

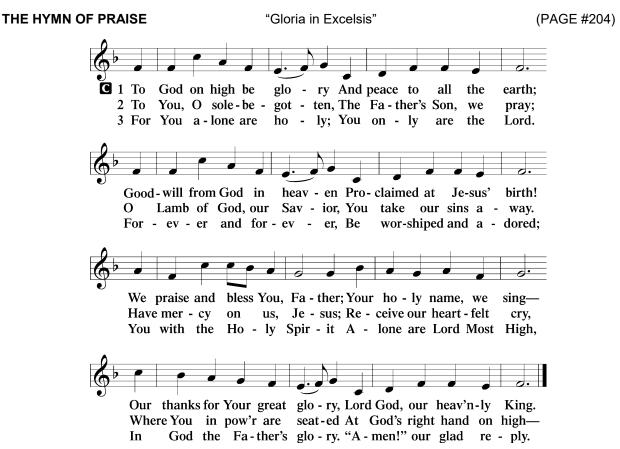

- L: In the name of the Father and of the † Son and of the Holy Spirit.
- C: Amen.
- L: Let us come before the Lord our God and confess our sins trusting in Christ who has provided our forgiveness.
- C: Have mercy on me, O God, according to your steadfast love; according to your abundant mercy blot out my transgression.

- L: O Lord, we confess that often our hearts are filled with anger, bitterness, and an unwillingness to forgive. We harbor grudges and withhold grace from those who have hurt or offended us. We act as though we have been betrayed beyond repair when wronged by friends, family, or community.
- C: O Lord, our hypocrisy stands before us, for you have pardoned our transgressions and we are reluctant to offer this forgiveness to others. We demand justice from fellow sinners while we have been forgiven a debt we could never repay. Grant us hearts that reflect your compassion. Soften our stubbornness and pride. Help us release past wounds and grievances into your healing hands for we are indeed forgiven by your blood shed on the cross.

KNEEL OR SIT

- L: In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. You are forgiven and set free from all of your sins. You have grace to give others and grace to live in now and forever.
- C: Amen, amen and amen.

CONGREGATION STAND

THE PRAYER OF THE DAY

- L: The Lord be with you.
- C: And also with you.
- L: Let us pray:
- C: God of Mercy, you have forgiven us our many sins. Grant us the grace to forgive as you have forgiven us. Soften our hearts, cool our heated anger, and wash away our bitterness. Help us to release others from the debts they owe us, just as you have released us, through Jesus Christ our Lord and Savior. Amen.

†THE SERVICE OF THE WORD†

THE OLD TESTAMENT READING

~ Genesis 50:15-21 ~

¹⁵When Joseph's brothers saw that their father was dead, they said, "It may be that Joseph will hate us and pay us back for all the evil that we did to him." ¹⁶So they sent a message to Joseph, saying, "Your father gave this command before he died, ¹⁷'Say to Joseph, Please forgive the transgression of your brothers and their sin, because they did evil to you.' And now, please forgive the transgression of the servants of the God of your father." Joseph wept when they spoke to him. ¹⁸His brothers also came and fell down before him and said, "Behold, we are your servants." ¹⁹But Joseph said to them, "Do not fear, for am I in the place of God? ²⁰As for you, you meant evil against me, but God meant it for good, to bring it about that many people should be kept alive, as they are today. ²¹So do not fear; I will provide for you and your little ones." Thus he comforted them and spoke kindly to them.

L: This is the Word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.

THE EPISTLE READING

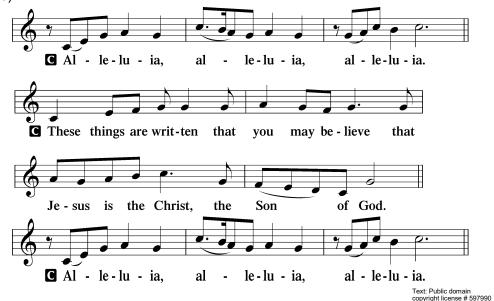

~ Romans 14:1-12 ~

¹As for the one who is weak in faith, welcome him, but not to quarrel over opinions. ²One person believes he may eat anything, while the weak person eats only vegetables. ³Let not the one who eats despise the one who abstains, and let not the one who abstains pass judgment on the one who eats, for God has welcomed him. ⁴Who are you to pass judgment on the servant of another? It is before his own master that he stands or falls. And he will be upheld, for the Lord is able to make him stand. ⁵One person esteems one day as better than another, while another esteems all days alike. Each one should be fully convinced in his own mind. ⁶The one who observes the day, observes it in honor of the Lord. The one who eats, eats in honor of the Lord, since he gives thanks to God, while the one who abstains, abstains in honor of the Lord and gives thanks to God. ⁵For none of us lives to himself, and none of us dies to himself. ⁵If we live, we live to the Lord, and if we die, we die to the Lord. So then, whether we live or whether we die, we are the Lord's. ⁵For to this end Christ died and lived again, that he might be Lord both of the dead and of the living. ¹⁰Why do you pass judgment on your brother? Or you, why do you despise your brother? For we will all stand before the judgment seat of God; ¹¹for it is written, "As I live, says the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God." ¹2So then each of us will give an account of himself to God.

- L: This is the Word of the Lord.
- C: Thanks be to God.

The Parable of the Unforgiving Servant

²¹ Then Peter came up and said to him, "Lord, how often will my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? As many as seven times?" ²² Jesus said to him, "I do not say to you seven times, but seventy-seven times. ²³ "Therefore the kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who wished to settle accounts with his servants. ²⁴ When he began to settle, one was brought to him who owed him ten thousand talents. ²⁵ And since he could not pay, his master ordered him to be sold, with his wife and children and all that he had, and payment to be made. ²⁶ So the servant fell on his knees, imploring him, 'Have patience with me, and I will pay you everything.' 27 And out of pity for him, the master of that servant released him and forgave him the debt. 28 But when that same servant went out, he found one of his fellow servants who owed him a hundred denarii, and seizing him, he began to choke him, saying, 'Pay what you owe.' ²⁹ So his fellow servant fell down and pleaded with him, 'Have patience with me, and I will pay you.' ³⁰ He refused and went and put him in prison until he should pay the debt. ³¹ When his fellow servants saw what had taken place, they were greatly distressed, and they went and reported to their master all that had taken place. ³² Then his master summoned him and said to him, 'You wicked servant! I forgave you all that debt because you pleaded with me. 33 And should not you have had mercy on your fellow servant, as I had mercy on you?' 34 And in anger his master delivered him to the jailers, until he should pay all his debt. ³⁵ So also my heavenly Father will do to every one of you, if you do not forgive your brother from your heart."

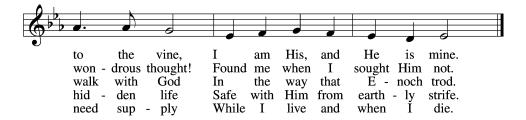

L: This is the Gospel of the Lord.

C: Praise to You, O Christ.

"How Often Must I Forgive?"

Pastor Scott Goltl

CONGREGATION STAND

THE NICENE CREED

C: I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth and of all things visible and invisible.

And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only-begotten Son of God, begotten of His Father before all worlds, God of God, Light of Light, very God of very God, begotten, not made, being of one substance with the Father, by whom all things were made; who for us men and for our salvation came down from heaven and was incarnate by the Holy Spirit of the virgin Mary and was made man; and was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate. He suffered and was buried. And the third day He rose again according to the Scriptures and ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of the Father. And He will come again with glory to judge both the living and the dead, whose kingdom will have no end. And I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord and giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son together is worshiped and glorified, who spoke by the prophets.

And I believe in one holy Christian and apostolic Church, I acknowledge one Baptism for the remission of sins, and I look for the resurrection of the dead and the life † of the world to come. Amen.

CONGREGATION STAND

HOLY COMMUNION PARTICIPATION: The Lord's Supper is celebrated at this congregation in the confession and glad confidence that, as He says, our Lord gives into our mouths not only bread and wine, but His very body and blood to eat and to drink for the forgiveness of sins and to strengthen our union with Him and with one another. Our Lord invites to His table those who trust His words, repent of all sin, and set aside any refusal to forgive and love as He forgives and loves us, that they may show forth His death until He comes. Because those who eat and drink our Lord's body and blood unworthily do so to their great harm and because Holy Communion is a confession of the faith which is confessed at this altar, any who are not yet instructed, in doubt or who hold a confession differing from that of this congregation and The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod, and yet desire to receive the Sacrament, are asked to first speak with the pastor or an usher. Gluten-Free wafers are available at the communion table. Please inform your server when you come forward.

THE PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

THE LORD'S PRAYER

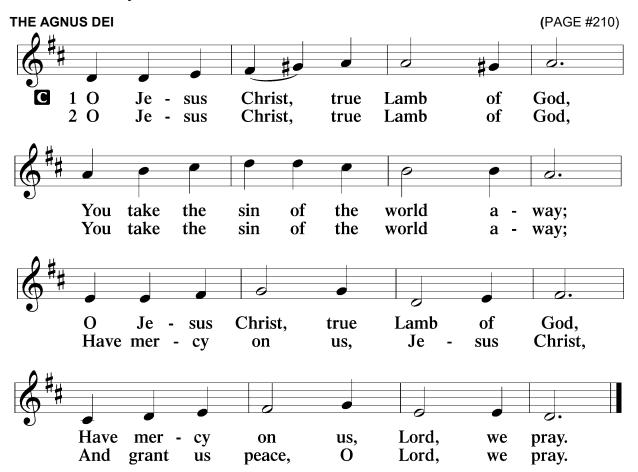

C: Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

THE WORDS OF OUR LORD

THE PAX DOMINI

L: The peace of the Lord be with you always.

C: And also with you.

A Minute with Matthew

September 1, 2023

Dear James Duitsman and the Kansas District,

Thank you for generously supporting me with the Kansas District Scholarship. This year is my final year to focus on learning as much as I can and enjoy time with my friends before we are sent all over into various ministries. Thank you for your generous support and prayers so that I can serve God as a pastor.

The fourth year of seminary is just like the first two. One privilege that I have as a fourth year is several electives along with the required classes. The classes I am looking forward to the most this semester are my Christian ethics class and a class on narrative preaching. One new thing this year is my field work church. Since Amy has a new teaching position at yet another school, I will be serving at Immanuel Lutheran Church. We enjoy this church yet are all the more looking forward to when we can stay at one place for more than one year! Finally, the last thing that I will be thinking about this semester is my first call in April. The process begins soon with many meetings and interviews. I am looking forward to this last year of intense learning and I am excited to find out where God will call me to serve.

In between leaving Florida and the start of school, Amy and I were able to have some summer fun. The picture above is from my dad's 30th anniversary in ministry. I was honored to preach for my father who is one of the most influential people in my life (even though I was nervous to preach in front of my home congregation). Once we were settled into our apartment on campus, Amy and I were able to check off a few things from our St. Louis "bucket list" which included a Cardinals game and a musical at The Muny outdoor theatre. Amy has also started teaching first grade at Immanuel Lutheran School in Olivette, MO.

Thank you again for your continued support and prayers through these years. I could not be more grateful for your generosity and commitment to the future of our Church and my education.

In Christ,

Matthew Goltl
